Soccer: All the students in this program will be having practice outdoors. Students will be learning new drills and strategies to defend and attack while playing. The students will be able to name 3 rules or 3 skills associated with soccer. The students will be able to verbally express two positive experiences they had while enrolled in soccer.

On the Run: All students in this program will be practicing running. Students will discuss the positive effects of living a healthy lifestyle and staying active. The students will train to successfully complete a mile run/race at the end of the program.

Drama: Students in this program will become familiar with the fundamentals of acting through improvisational games, scene study, and monologue work. Parents can expect their children to gain an introduction to acting terminology and technique, a safe place to be creative and silly, encouragement to have fun and build self-esteem to take risks, and improve communication and presentation skills.

Smallbites: Students in this program will be going over a recipe while also learning how to measure, learning hygienic practices, and tasting different treats. Students will be able to state one recipe they created together. Students will be able to explain why this recipe is nutritional, and what it means to eat a healthy diet based foods.

Singing: Students in this program will learn to sing different songs from different genres. They will learn about pitch, rhythm, and basic note reading. The students will understand how to follow music as well as how to lead the instructor while singing.

Beat Making Students in this program will be able to learn how to use software and learn the "recipe" for a song. At the end of the program, students will be able to collaborate and cultivate their talents to weave beats, looping patterns, and lyrical content to produce a final song by the end of the session.

Dance Students in this program will dance to many popular songs! They will also be learning some basic steps to a song. The students will learn the choreography to 2-3 dances which will be memorized as a group.
