

Role of a School Speech-Language Pathologist

Speech-Language Pathologists assess, diagnose, treat, and help prevent those communication disorders within the school setting found to negatively impact students' academic progress.